Murder Will Out.

On the 25th of last month, on the occasion of the holding of the weekly market at El Hammam, a murder was committed at some dis tance from that village, a Bedeuin having been found shot in the head. The police took the matter in hand, but until yesterday no trace of the murderer could be found. Yesterday was ing to the Mariout district who was on duty there received information to the effect that the murderer, a Bedouin like his victim, was to be found at Sidi Gaber. He at once proceeded by train in company with his informant, who pointed the man out near Sidi Gaber caracol. The murderer was thereupon arrested and in his possession was found a new revolver with six chambers loaded, basides twelve rounds of ammunition. It appears that the mar, knowing his victim to possess a large sum of money, had followed him after the fair and, taking the opportunity of his being asleep in a field, had shot him through the head, afterwards taking a sum of about £70 off the body.

THE KHEDIVE.

PRINCE OF WALES' PROMISE.

PROBABLE VISIT TO LONDON.

H. H. the Khedive has fixed his departure from Cairo for Alexandria for Monday, the 30th inst. The usual reception previous to his leaving the Capital will be held on either Thursday, the 26th, or Saturday, the 28th instant.

We understand that his Highness has invited T.R.H. the Prince and Princess of Wales to pay Egypt another and a longer visit at some future time, which invitation the Royal couple accepted.

It is rumoured that the Khediya will in all probability pay a visit to London this summer at the invitation of his Royal visitors.

KHEDIVE ENTERTAINS THE ARCHDUKE.

On Friday last the Khedive gave a small afternoon party at Koubbeh, the guests being T.R.H. the Archduke Joseph and the Archduchess Augusta, the Archduke's Chamberlain and physician, and the lady-in-waiting of the Archduchess, Count Koziebrodski, the Austro-Hungarian Minister, General Thurneyssen Pacha, A.D.C., and Mme Baltazzi Stockan and her daughter, in all, with the Khedive, 10 persons. The party first drove round the stable and admired the Khedive's fine stud, ther drove over to the fields to watch the horses eating bersim, and subsequently proceeded to Monstourouh, the other property of the Khedive, close to Koubbeh, where tea had been prepared. Afterwards the Khedive accompanied his guests back to Koubbeh. It was a delightful afternoon, and on Saturday morning, when General Thurneyssen Pacha went to the station to see the Archduke off on behalf of the Khedive, the Archduke and Archduchess asked him to present the expression of their thankfulness to the Khedive for the pleasant atternoon they had passed with him.

The Khedive has made a gift of a thorough bred Arab to the Archdochess.

PORT SUDAN AND KHARTOUM WATER SUPPLY.

Some time ago the Artesian Boring and Prospecting Company received from the Sudan Government the contract for the installation of water supplies by means of artesian wells to the towns of Khartoum and Port Sudan. With regard to the latter place they have just received a telegram from their residing engineer informing them that up-to-date their steam-driven "Express Boring" plant has reached a depth of 400 feet with a first borehole, and that already this artesian well is able to supply a certain quantity of fresh

There seems to be no doubt that the source of the water comes from the mountains situated of the water in the bore-well rises to a considerable height above the sea level. If, how. ever, the output is not sufficient further borings are intended to be made in order to ensure all the necessary supply of water which may eventually be required.

With regard to Khartoum, the company's nstallation for the supply of fresh water to the whole town, also by means of artesian wells, is on the point of being finished, by neans of wells driven to a depth between 250 and 350 feet. >

In the course of the works the company have encountered strates of excellent Nubian sandstone, which will ensure a supply of the best pure water.

GREEK INDEPENDENCE DAY.

HELLENIC MUNIFICENCE. INTERESTING CEREMONY.

The celebration of the anniversary of the declaration of Greek independence on Saturday last will long be remembered by the Greek colony at Alexandria, for the occasion was made use of for laying the foundation stone of an institution which is destined to be one of the finest educational establishments in Egypt.

The former president of the Hellenic comnunity of Alexandria, the late Mr. Constantino Salvago, left a bequest in his will for the purpose cf founding a polytechnic here. After his death the bequest was largely increased by the generosity of Mr. Salvago's widow and two sons. A large plot of land waabought outside Rosetta-gate, in front of the cemeteries, and yesterday afternoon the foundation stone of the institution was laid by Mrs. Argentina Michel Salvago, in the pre sence of a great concourse of members of the Greak colony and representatives of the other Suropean colonies.

A large tent was set up for the occasion where a sumptuous buffet was prepared. At 4.30 o'clock the ceremony began with a thanksgiving service conducted by the Greek Orthodox Patriarch Photius I., assisted by all his olergy. The Patriarch, at the conclusion of the service, invoked the blessing of the Most High on the new school by sprinkling holy water, and finished an eloquent harangue with an account of the many acts of generosity by which the Greek colony of Alexandria had benefited owing to the munificence of its wealthy members.

After the Patriarch Mr. Paleologos Georgiou the headmaster of the Hellenic community's schools, read from a parchment document the formal bequest of the donors, which was afterwards signed by Photius I, Mohamed Bey Hafez, Acting Governor of Alexandria, Mr. N. Scotidis, Hellenic Consul-General, Mr. R. B. Gould, H.B.M.'s Consul General for the City and Port of Alexandria, Schiess Pachs Vice-President of the Alexandria Municipality, Chataway Bey, Administrator of the Alex-andria Municipality, Mr. Emmanuel Benachi and Mr. Michael Sinadino, the President and Vice-President of the Hellenic community. Messrs. Michael and Steffy Salvago, Mrs. Constantino Salvago, and Mrs. Argentine Michel Salvago. The parchment was looked in a metal tube and placed in the orifice of the foundation-stone together with a copy of the "Egyptian Gazette" and the "Harmonia of the day's date, besides some specimens of ourrent Egyptian coins. Mrs. Argentina Michel Salvago then advanced and, after christening the stone with the contents of two bottles of champagne, received a beautifully-chased silver trowel, a mallet, and a hammer, presented by the well-known Italian engineer, Signor Diamanti, and then proceeded declare the stone "well and truly laid."

A buffalo was then brought forward and sacrificed on the foundation-stone. The beast was afterwards out up and its flesh distributed to the poor. The fine band of the Alexandria Hellenic community played meanwhile a choice selection of music, and the stone was lowered into its position amidst the acclamations of the assembled multitude. The President of the Hellenic community, Mr. Emmanuel Benachi, then made an eloquent speech wherein he called to mind the good deeds of the benefactors of the Greek colony of Alexandria, such as the late George Averoff and the late Constantine Salvago, who noble example was to-day being followed by the surviving members of the family of his predecessor, the late president of the comnunity. Mr. Benachi then declared that the Hellenic colony was shortly to benefit by another act of generosity, for Mr. George Zervudachi has decided to build at his own expense a Normal College here.

The speaker went on to announce that he would follow Mr. Zervudachi's example by endowing the Hellenic colony with an orphanage. At these unexpected announcements there at these acts of generosity.

Mr. N. Scotidis, Hellenic Consul-General at Alexandria, then pronounced a brilliant speech, thanking the donors of these splendid gifts in the name of the Greeks of Alexandria. He begged the wealthy members of his race to follow these magnificent precedents, and to set an example of generosity and public spirit whereby the Hellenic community throughout Egypt would ever march in the van of progress.

Mr. Michel Salvago thanked all the spea kers on behalf of his mother, his broth and himself, declaring that he was merely obeying the orders given by his late father in his will, and he hoped that he and his family would hereafter follow the example set by his father in doing other works for the good of his compatriots in Egypt's commercial capital.

After another explosion of cheering the Pat riarch Photius I., accompanied by the head-master of the Hellenic community's schools, walked among the long files of pupils of the speakers and guests and the crowd. His Beatitude addressed words of encouragement and commendation to the youths, urging them to work hard and follow in the path of virtue The buffet was then thrown open and a hand-some repast was partaken of and the memorable eremony came to an end.

Afterwards a procession was formed of the pupils, headed by their band, and the headmaster and professional staff, who went to the Greek quarter and played a selection of music outside the houses of Mesers, Benachi, Sinadino, Salvago, and Zervudachi.

THREATENED BARBERS' STRIKE.

The Unione Internazionale dei Parruchieri avoranti of Cairo held a meeting on Friday evening at the Brasserie Fleisch, when some 60 members of the union were present. It was unanimously decided to demand from the masters the closing of their shops entirely on Sunday during the summer months, from the 1st May to the 30th September, and to fix the working hours during week-days from 7.30 a.m. to 8:30 p.m., with an interval of two hours in the middle of the day for meals, instead of one hour and a half, as at present. Should the masters not concede these concessions in full by to-day at the latest, the barbers intend going on strike. It is expected that a compromise will be arrived at when the committee of the union go round this morning for the answers of the masters.

GREEK INDEPENDENCE DAY

Saturday being the 85th anniversary of the selaration of Greek independence the diploma tic agencies and consulates in Cairo flew their respective flags. A Thanksgiving Service, which was very largely attended, was held at the Greek Orthodox Hamzawi Cathedral at 10 a.m. The personnel of the Greek Diplomatic Agency and Consulate and all the notables of the colony attended the service, over which the Patriarch presided. This service, which lasted an hour, was followed by a reception at the Greek Agency. In the evening a meeting was held at the Greek Club, where M. Boukavalas delivered an eloquent and a patriotic address to an en thusiastic audience.

EGYPTIAN COTTON IN SIND.

(PROM THE "TIMES OF INDIA").

Endeavours to introduce foreign varieties of cotton into this country have hitherto proved generally unsuccessful. If in some exceptional circumstances they did well at the first sowing, they rapidly deteriorated and the experiments proved to be failures. In most cases, however, they did not grow at all. So uniform, indeed, has been the failure of efforts to introduce new varieties of cotton that the attempt had been. declared practically hopeless, and hybridization The Prefect of Naples is sending troops and among the indigenous varieties was supposed the crop. It is especially gratifying, therefore, The eruption of Vesuvius continues to cause to learn from the report of the Bombay Department of Agriculture that the cultivation The village of Boscotrecase is encircled by of Egyptian cotton in Sind has fairly passed lava; the inhabitants are decamping. (FROM OUR COBRESPONDENT).

LONDON, March 30. On the 6th June next, Brevet-Colonel S. G. Bird, D.S.O., Royal Dublin Fusiliers, will vacate the command of the 1st Battalion in Egypt, to Madras Fusiliers—now the 1st Battalion of the gallant "Dubs"-in 1874, was promoted captain in 1881, major in 1892, and lieutenantcolonel in June, 1902. He was adjutant of a militia battalion from 1886 to 1889, and also of the Ceylon Volunteer Light Infantry from 1889 till 1894. He was with the Dublins in the South African War, including the opening action of the campaign at Talana Hill; Lombard's Kop; the operations in the Orange Free State, operations in the Transvaal, west of Pretoria; and for some time he was Commandant at Gordon, second in command of the 2nd Batt.
